CLOSING

Where would you rather be?

Where you are in a given day is not always where you want to be. Larry and Tammy find themselves thinking of where they would like to be. The noise of the classroom seems in the distance when a game is to be played in a few hours. The noise of the room becomes the noise of the cheering crowd.

The facts from a book as explained by a teacher soon become the distant chatter of friends chatting together in the warm out-of-doors. These moments are fleeting for reality must be dealt with. "Larry" or "Tammy". The teacher has just called your name and suddenly the class is real again.

Here's To Good Times

Here is to the good times we have spent together through all of the school activities, and even activities out of school. We have had some fantastic good times. These are times we will cherish for ever, and we will look back on them with laughter.

Everyone has their share of good times as well as their bad times, but we always seem to come out on top. Even though many things change during life, we still have the memories of years gone by. The good times are remembered for the fellowship we had. So, let's have a toast. Here is to the good times. May they be glorious and everlasting. Cheers!

It's not everyday you can drive a blue tractor!

"Hey big brother, take a walk."

Leslie, you must be getting shorter.

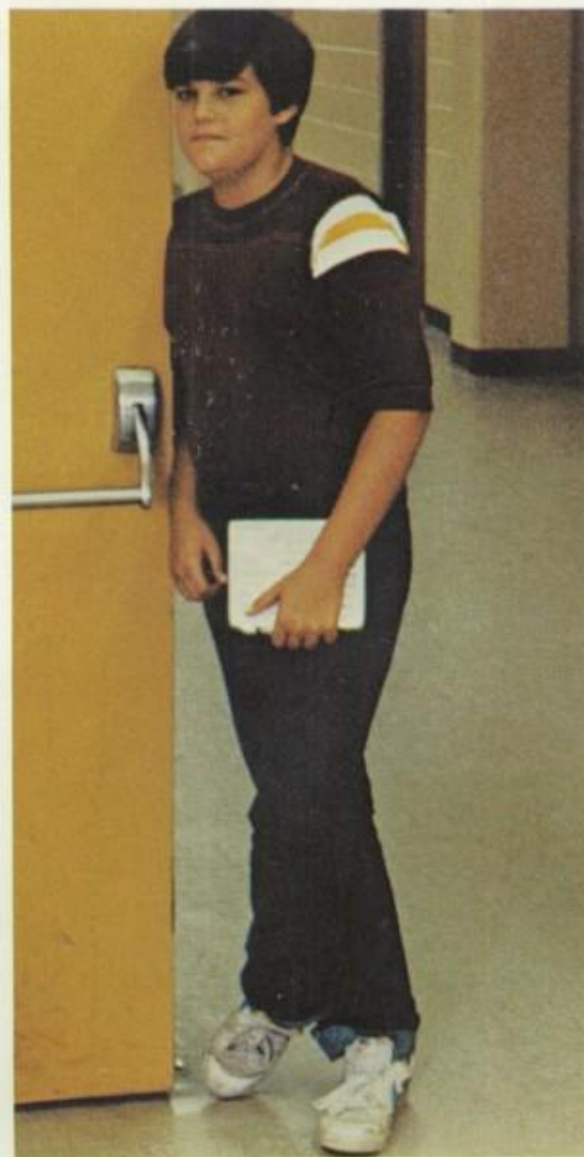

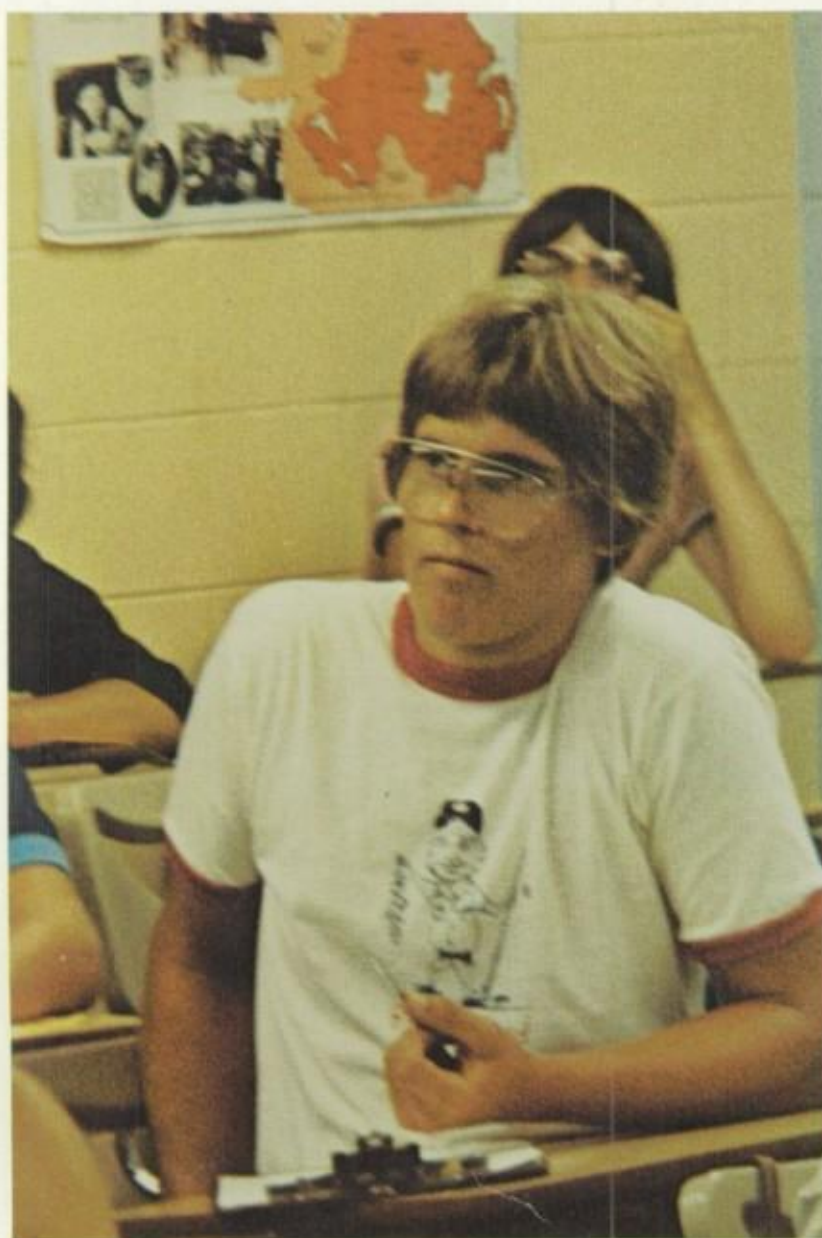

"Peek a boo! I see you!"

"We bad! Go home!"

Colts Are Industrious

"Waiting for the teacher."

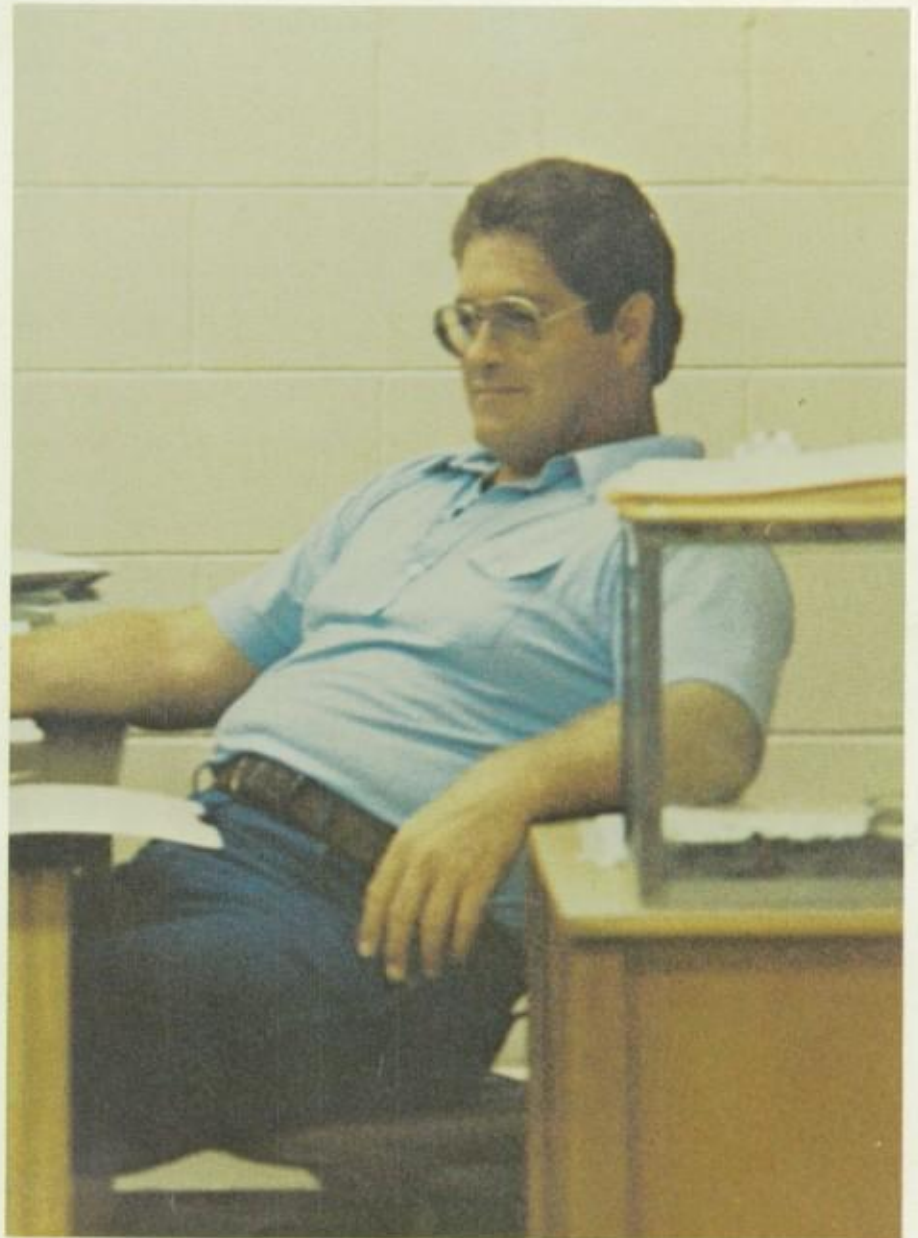

Terri researches a PAD paper.

"Did you know ..."

We have the spirit. We have had the good times, but Colts have that drive to get the job done. In sports the students put forth all their best effort. They play with the determination to win, but more important they play for the sheer joy of competing.

In our classes each student knows it is their obligation to obtain the necessary skills to perform well in whatever they decide to do. Application of many of the skills are offered students in vocational courses as well as in academic classes. Hours are spent in performing tasks on campus to improve it. Our campus has improved over the years with new additions. With these new additions maintenance and improvements must be performed. Our vocational classes offer many students opportunities to test their skills. We strive to teach, we strive to learn, we strive to perform.

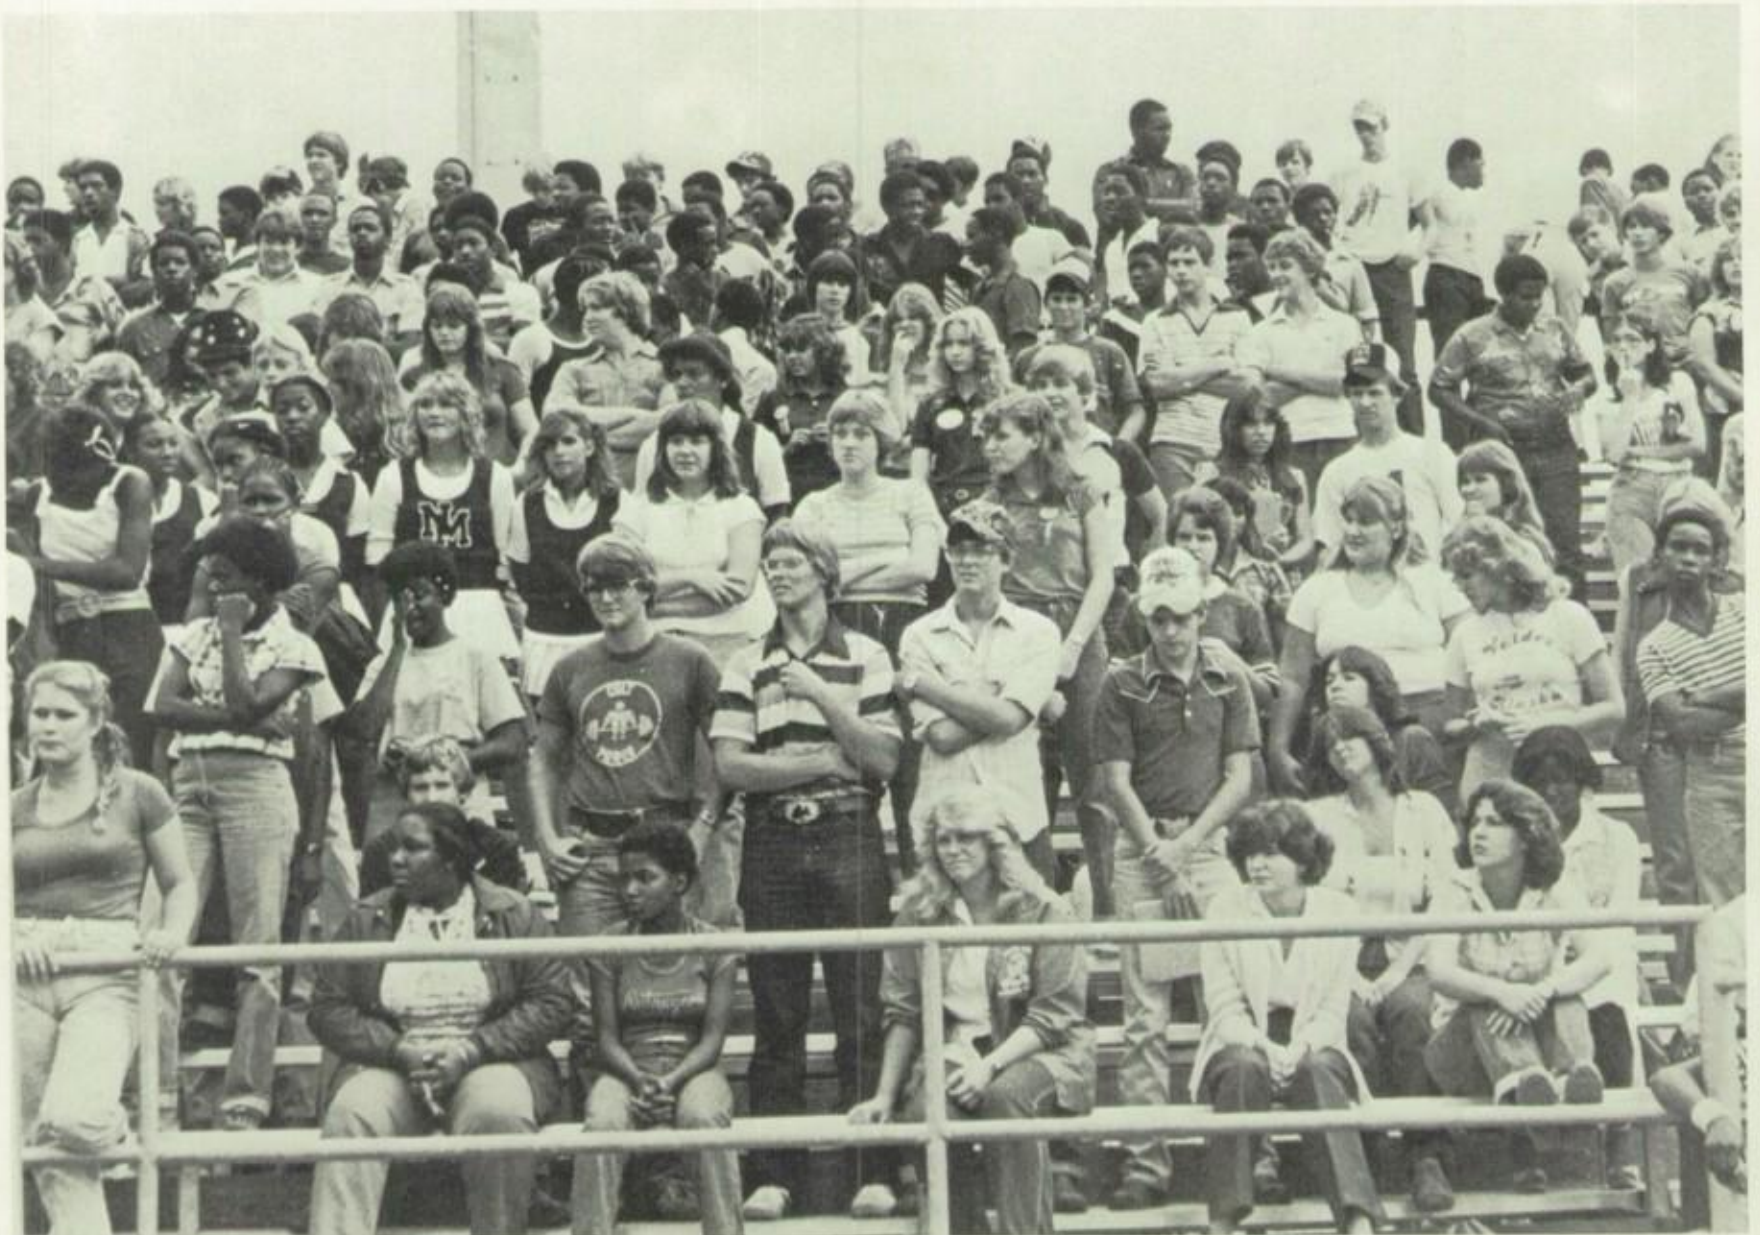

"My, what a long day this has been."

Here's to Good Friends

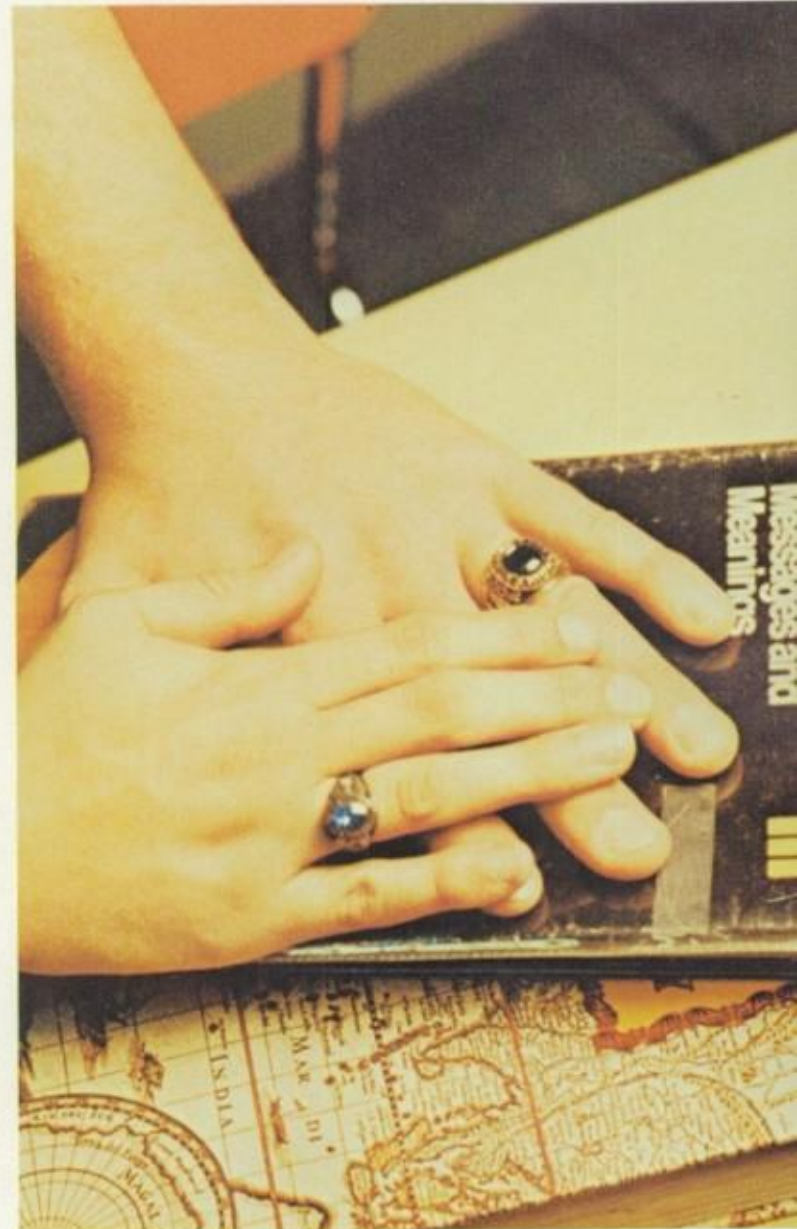

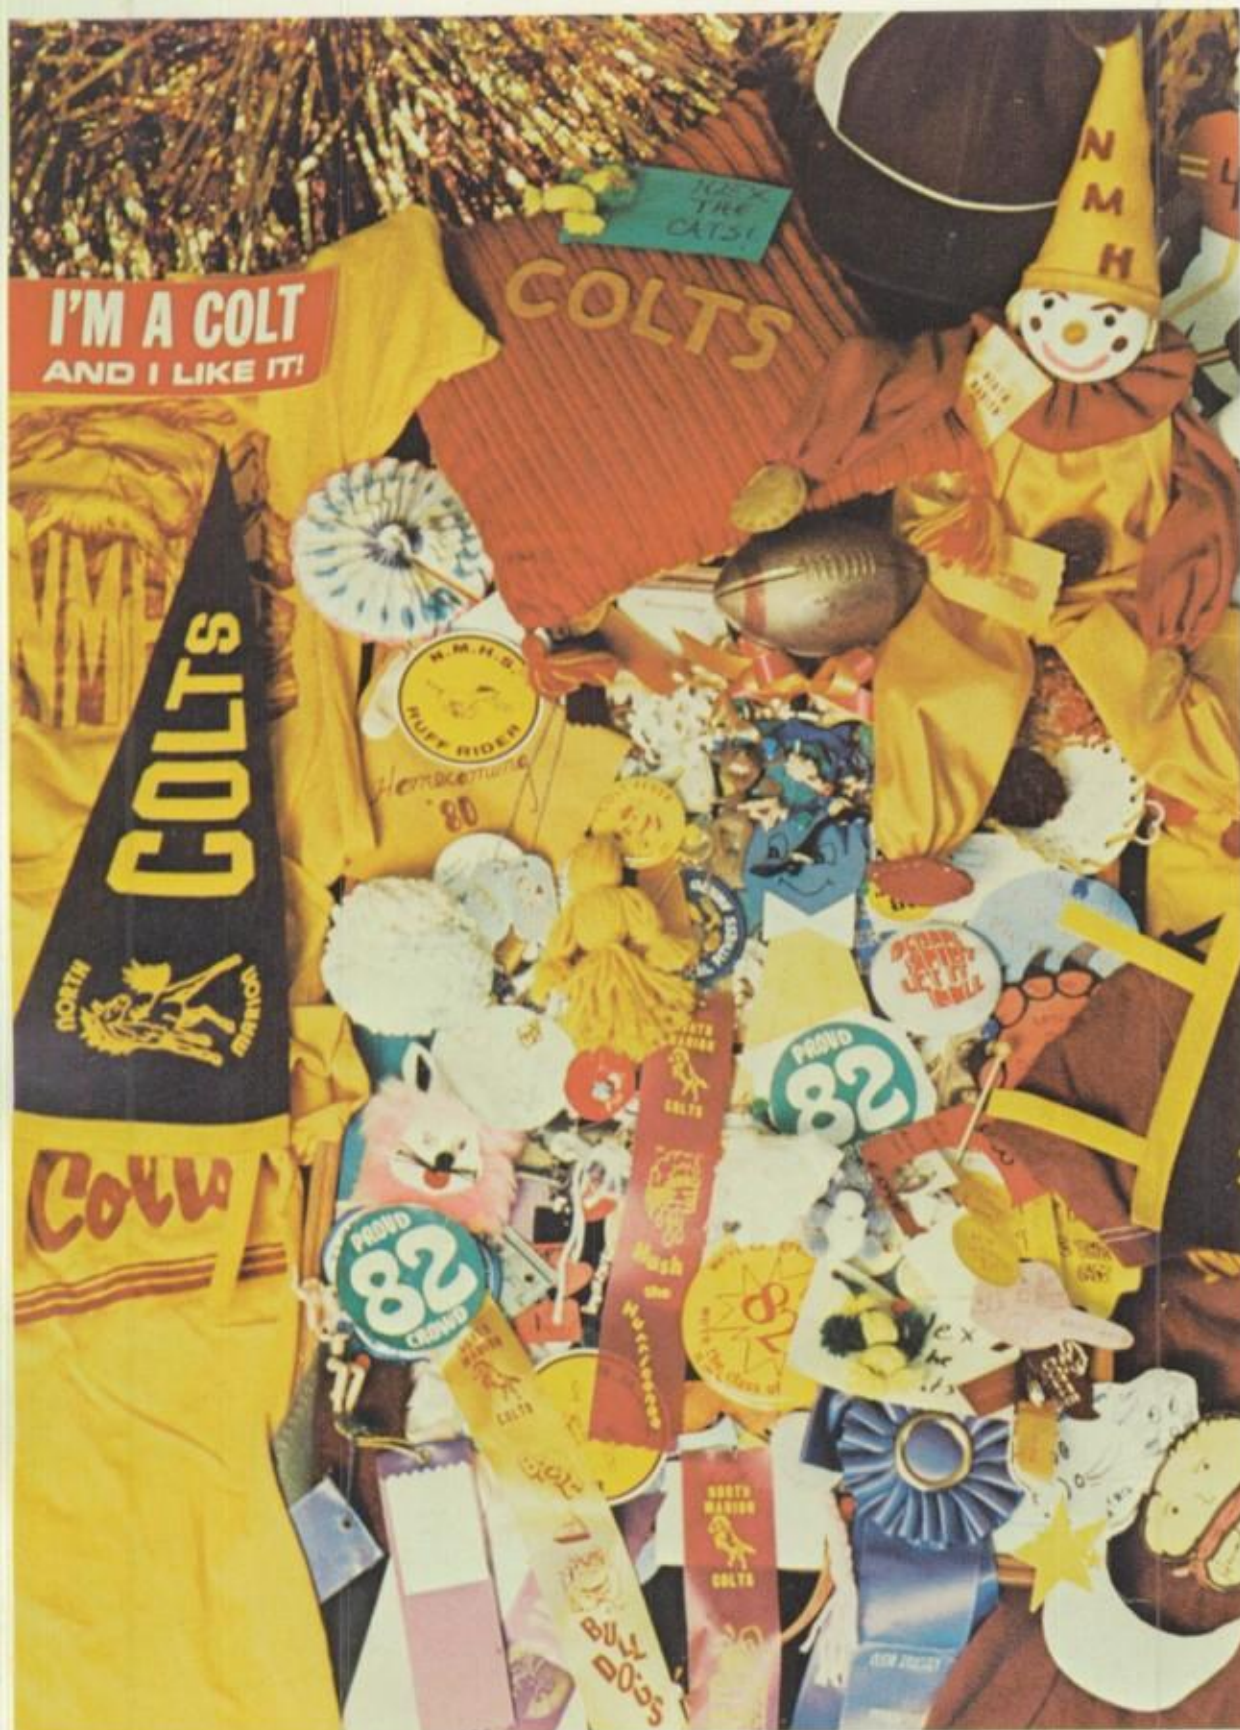

All through high school students are surrounded by their friends. At football games, in class, at pep rallies, with the band, and in other activities a student meets with their friends and has a good time. The student comes to school to be educated through books and teaching, but they also learn an important lesson that they will use throughout life — how to make friends. More important though, they learn how to be a friend.

Friends play a very important role in our lives. Without friends, life would be very dull and dreary. Friends are there to share the good times and help through the bad times. Of most importance though, a friend is someone with whom a student may be themselves. Friendship is forever.

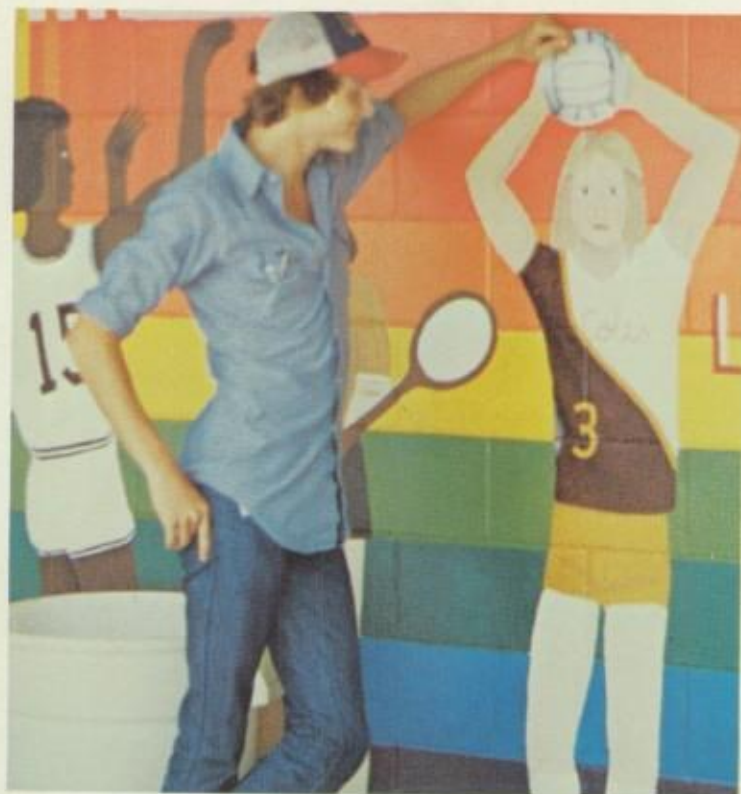

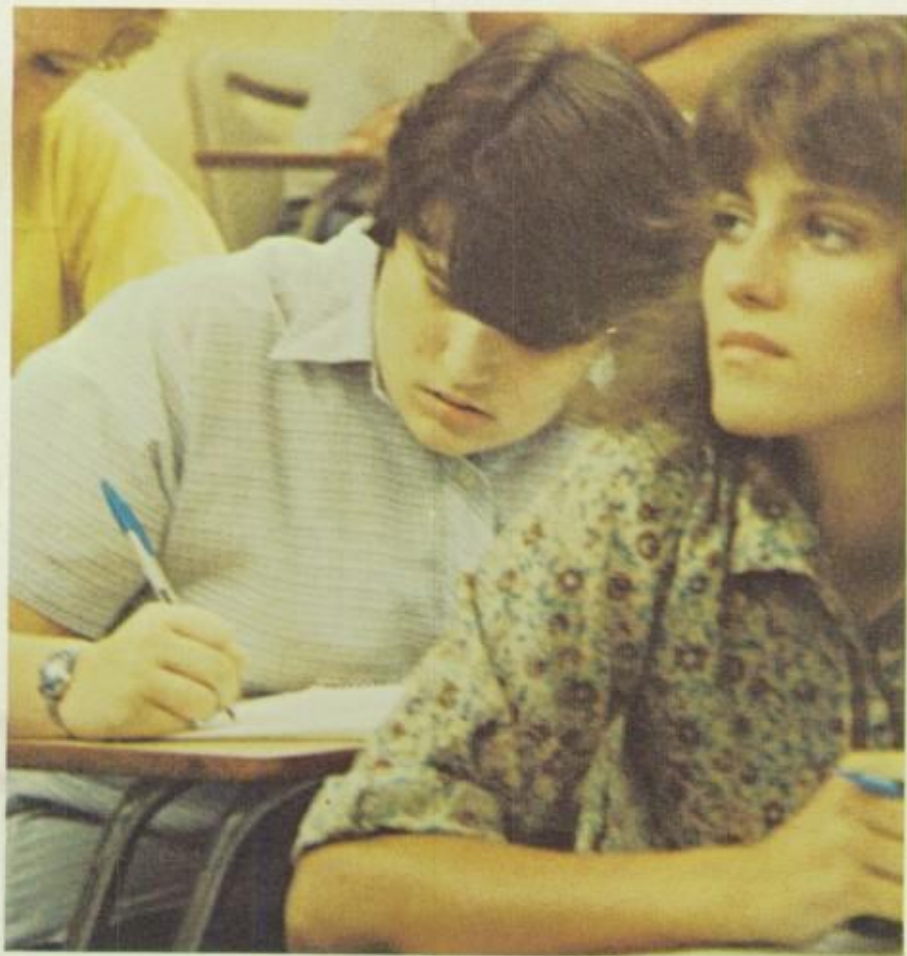

*Colts
Have Spirit*

In all of a Colt's activities, we show our spirit. Pep rallies during lunch, between classes, in class, and in the stadium generate spirit in each loyal Colt. We generate our spirit in these activities, but it is most evident in the outside school activities such as football, basketball, cross country, weightlifting, and the powder puff game, to mention a few. These activities are the most important times to have spirit so we can support the mighty Colts. Having school spirit is an important part of our everyday schedule. Keep it up MIGHTY COLTS.

Colts

ARE Dynamite

What is a Colt? They come in short sizes, tall sizes, thin sizes, and broad sizes. They are fair, and they are dark. Some wear their hair long, and some wear it short. They have a purpose and a goal. Put these things together with a little laughter, a little change of clothes, a little different personality, and you have a being that begins to look like a Colt. What makes each different is that each one has that little difference and that little quirk that polishes the being into a MIGHTY COLT.

Each colt possesses spirit that gives them the zest to tackle any job. They are spunky and tough. They stand up to what they believe is right, and they have the right to change what they believe is wrong. Put a little spark in them and COLTS ARE DYNAMITE.

The secretaries at North Marion High play a very important role in keeping the students on top. You will notice they are always very busy providing different services for the faculty and students. Even though their jobs are not very easy, you will always see them smiling. To all the hard-working secretaries, "We are proud of you."

Fine Arts

Mr. Hilliard

Mrs. Ward

This year our new head coach, Bob Corley, showed great efforts in improving our football team. Even though the Colts did not do as well as they had the potential to do, they still displayed team spirit and PRIDE.

Our curriculum of fine arts is made up of our band and our commercial art classes. The band with over two hundred marching members received a superior once again in competition. The commercial art classes have art shows at least twice a year where everyone can see how talented our Colts really are!

National Honor Society

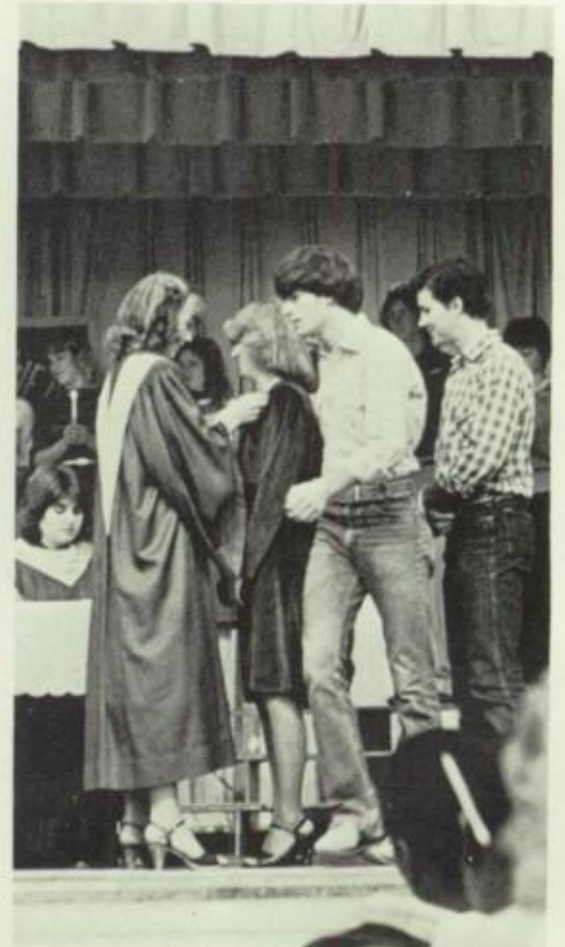

Even though the National Honor Society is small, they accomplish a whole lot. The National Honor Society does something special for the teachers each year. They give them a Christmas Tea. The teachers are treated to all kinds of goodies and, of course, a "special thanks" from the students. The members seem to think that N.H.S. is a very worthwhile club.

The Young men are picked for their sincere qualities and the help they give to the club.

Mr. Grant Takes A Trip To Delmar

On November 7th, Mr. Grant drove to Orlando and boarded a jet plane to Charlotte, N. C. to visit the plant of Delmar Publishing Company. He arrived early in the morning and began with a tour of the different departments that make up the production unit of printing the yearbook. Mr. Grant said that he found the typesetting department to be the most interesting because he could see people at work with the computers that are used to make-up the print on every page of the yearbook. He said he was really disappointed that most of the plant was not working so that he could see all of the aspects of putting a yearbook together. Asked what he liked most about the trip, Mr. Grant said that he liked the airplane most of all.

Colts Have Fun Dressing Up 50's Day

On 50's day the Colts went back in time. Students borrowed ideas from "Mom" and "Dad" for dressing up. Once again the "greasies" were in. There was a bubble gum blowing contest followed by a lollipop licking contest. The Key Club sponsored a car smash. We showed them, we Colts are really BAD!

Colts Show Their Creativity

Once again Colts showed their pride and creativity in the class and club skits and in the door contest during Homecoming week. The Civinettes took first place in the skit contest with a take-off from Stripes. The door contest awarded Mrs. Johnson's fifth period class with first place. Second and third places went to Mrs. Shockley's fifth period and Mrs. Miller's fifth period.

Dress Up Day was a day to be remembered. The Colts were decked in their "Sunday Best" for the occasion. Everyone got caught up in the spirit of the day.

Terri Polite

Homecoming Queen 1981

This year Terri Polite was chosen as North Marion's Homecoming Queen. Terri is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Johnson. She is very active in cheerleading, Lady Colts track team, and is a Key Club Sweetheart. Her hobbies include dancing, growing plants, and meeting new people. Terri was very proud to become North Marion's Homecoming Queen.

Old Gray Mares Victorious Again

This year something new was added to the Powder Puff Game; we had boy cheerleader tryouts. They turned out to be a definitely unique group of boys. The game itself was very exciting. The game almost ended in a tie, but the Ole Gray Mares pulled a winning play out of the hat in the last seconds. This was the first time we had the game during the day, and the students had a chance to all attend. One of the highlights of the game was when "Cynthia Sams" did her fancy cheers! Next year Ole Gray Mares!

Colts Beat Yellow Jackets At Homecoming

The 1981 Homecoming Game ended the week long tradition at North Marion. We played the Leesburg Yellowjackets. The Colts put together many exciting plays to win the game 20 to 9. As any exciting game can be the Colts experienced some very tense moments as Leesburg threatened our goal. One shocking moment came when the Yellowjackets kicked a 50 yard field goal. But the Colts came through with some equally shocking plays that put us on top. Homecoming 1981 was an exciting week topped off with an exciting football game.

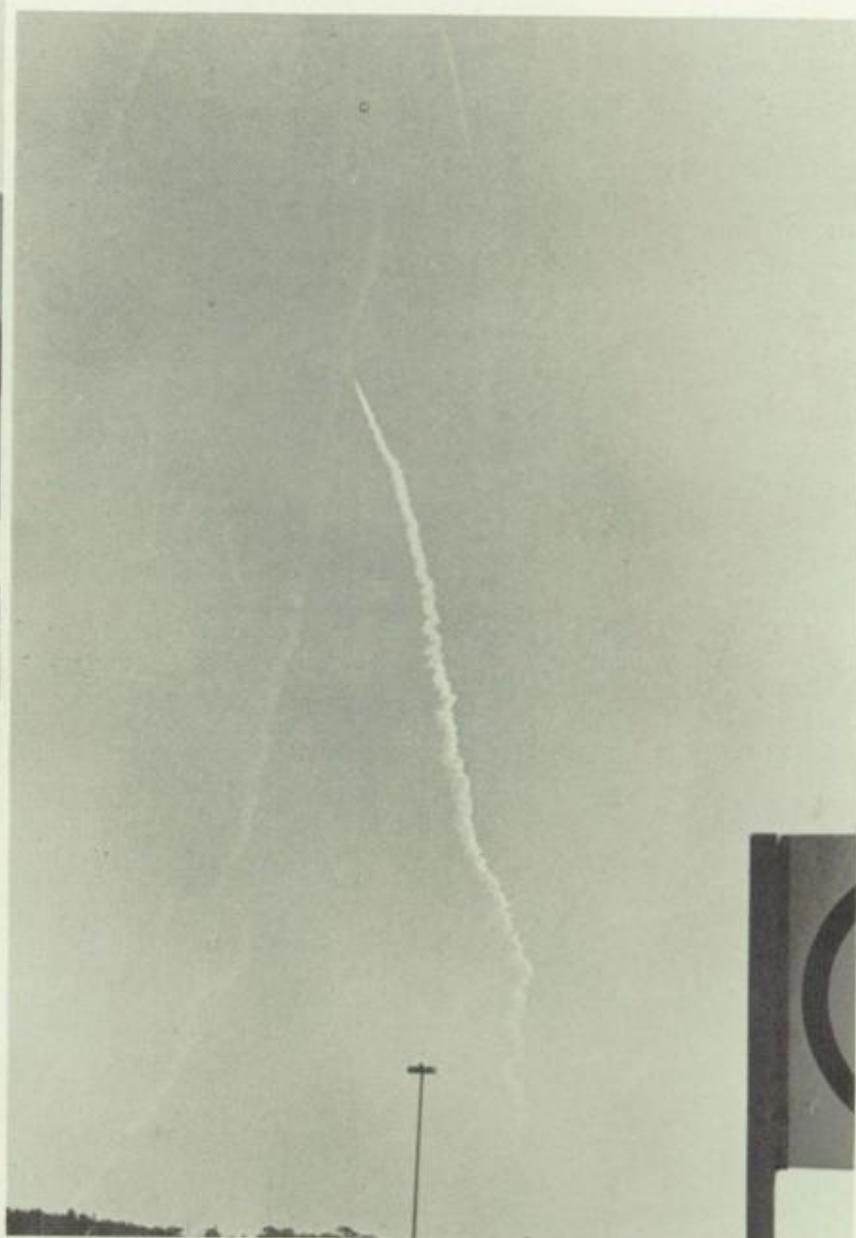

The Air Force Band Performs For The Colts

The U.S. Air Force Band returned to the campus of North Marion to perform after a year's absence. The students enjoyed listening to the band play the popular pieces of today. Mrs. Locke works closely with all of the Armed services and through her efforts the Air Force Band came on campus again.

Columbia Races For Space

The space shuttle Columbia rose from its pad at Cape Canaveral on November 12th and all of Central Florida watched. The students were able to see it from the top floor of the new building. These pictures were taken by Mr. Grant as he arrived at the Orlando International Airport, just fifty miles from the Launch site.

VICA Club and FFA Build Floats

Every year Ocala has a Christmas parade and this year was no exception for our school to enter a float. Both the VICA Club and the FFA made floats for the parade this year. Many time-consuming hours went into making the individual scenes depicted on the floats. Many students lent their talents and hard work to make them a success. As a result of this teamwork, VICA's float won first prize in their category. Congratulations VICA and FFA on a job well done.

Square Dancing At N.M.H.S.?

Physical Education at North Marion is a chance to improve the students physically. Every year there are games to provide the students with exercise in coordination. This year the P.E. teachers added something different, square dancing. The students not only had to perform, but they had to listen. They learned to do 8 dances. There were from twelve to fourteen squares going on at once. Some of the students even volunteered to dance at a basketball game half-time. The majority of the students enjoyed square dancing and Mrs. Porter said it would definitely be in the program again next year.

North Marion's

Answer

To The

Gold Diggers

Gold Diggers watch out! North Marion has the hottest thing in cheerleaders since Edye D'Andrea did a back flip on a banana peel. During Homecoming Week the campus was graced with the graceful antics of ten lovely beauties chosen from the senior class to lead the students in cheers at the powder puff game. Those lovelies chosen were Conrad Sams, Brad Grant, Brad Adkins, Jay Lawing, Kevin McGary, Butch Green, Jimmy Johnson, Ralph Jackson, Alan Waters, and Jake McCants. Their speciality was looks. Each was graceful in their abilities to do cartwheels and build pyramids. Ralph, you were great in the Kawasaki! Conrad, you beauty, your wiggles and bumps were far out. Word is getting around that next year a team of lovelies will replace the regular cheerleaders. Girls, eat your hearts out, the Deadly Ten have arrived.

Halloween

Halloween has become a traditional ritual at North Marion. Each year at Halloween the students dress in the most comical and ghoulish costumes. Some students find this the time to dress in traditional costumes of their heritage. The students have fun.

N.H.S. Gives Christmas Tea For Faculty

The National Honor Society sponsors every year a Christmas tea for the faculty. This year the table was laden with cakes, cookies, and all manner of spreads. The students gave the faculty a selection of Christmas carols as part of their program. The faculty thoroughly enjoyed the tea and the fellowship provided by the National Honor Society.

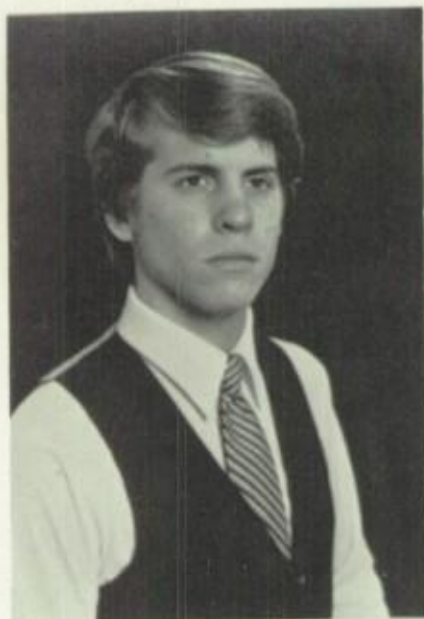

Faculty Overwhelms Santa!

Each year the faculty has a little Christmas party before leaving for the holidays. Though tired, the faculty is eager to begin their long awaited holiday. This year was no exception, but when Santa arrived to give out the one present each teacher awaited, they overwhelmed him. It was fun and a chance for the teachers to wish each other best wishes for the holidays.
